SMPS-NY

SMPS-NY is celebrating our 40th anniversary!

With ruby representing passion, power, and courage, we proudly celebrate four decades of dedication, growth, and excellence. From humble beginnings to where we stand today, we've embraced challenges, forged new connections, and shaped the AEC industry.

The Society for Marketing Professional Services (SMPS) is a non-profit organization that advances the marketing and business development professions within the AEC industry. The SMPS-NY Chapter, founded in 1983, has been a driving force in shaping the future of marketing in the region, offering its members valuable resources, educational opportunities, and networking events to promote growth and excellence.

NEW SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY!

We are thrilled to provide the chance to sponsor protégés in the SMPS-NY Mentorship Program by covering their registration fees for the Liberty Ball.

Now in its fifteenth year, the Mentorship Program reflects SMPS-NY's dedication to helping AEC marketers and business developers grow personally and professionally. We welcome professionals at every career stage to join us as either mentors or mentees.

This sponsorship opportunity lets companies demonstrate their commitment to fostering new talents and promoting professional growth. For further details, please see the Mentor Level Package.
